BITS & PIECES -

Wollaston Islands (SA-031) and Diego Ramirez Islands (SA-094)

Mehdi, F5PFP reports that his good friend Pupi, LU8XP advised him that a group of hams including Pedro, HK3JJH are preparing an expedition to the Chilean sub-Antarctic territories of the Wollaston Islands (SA-031) and Diego Ramirez Islands (SA-094) in 2010 or perhaps 2011.

Pupi might be in charge of the logistic support at Ushuaia as he has done before for several other expeditions.

More details to follow through time. [DX World of Ham Radio]
